A Greeting from the President of the Church

Rev. James E. Wagner, D.D., LL.D., Th.D.

The full-page picture of the Rev. W. Sherman Kerschner, D.D., which appears on page 5 of the Year Book is there only through the strongest insistence of the President of the Church.

Dr. Wagner

There is ample reason for the picture being there.

This is the thirteenth of these Year Books which Dr. Kerschner has edited.

Moreover, it is the last Year Book edited by him, for Dr. Kerschner's retirement on age will become effective January 31, 1957.

It seemed to be an appropriate occasion on which to pay tribute to this servant of the Church and to record for our membership the essential biographical data and some suggestion as to what manner of man this has been who has served the Church so well.

He always wrote his name W. Sherman Kerschner, and it was more or less accidental that his associates discovered that the "W" stands for "Welcome." Really! It is indeed an unusual name, the choice of which Dr. Kerschner thinks had two sources. His father, the late Rev. James George Kerschner, had a longtime personal friend whom he admired greatly and whose first name was Welcome. Then, the infant destined to become our Secretary-Editor was the second child of his parents, the first having been a daughter; and when the second turned out to be a son his parents welcomed his advent in much the same spirit as most parents welcome the son-and-daughter combination in their families.

"Welcome" his first name is, and this warm and wonderful word is a good symbol of the genial-spirited man who has borne the name for more than the Biblical three-score years and ten.

He was born October 31, 1885, the 368th anniversary of the historic occasion when Martin Luther nailed to the door of the church in Wittenberg, Germany, his famous ninety-five theses and thus precipitated the Protestant Reformation. Dr. Kerschner was born and grew up in the Reformation tradition deriving from Ulrich Zwingli and John Calvin, but he cannot have helped noting his birthday's incidental link with the doings of that other of the great Reformers.

Dr. Kerschner's retirement brings to a close forty-five years of faithful service to the Church. He was ordained in 1912 at Freeport, Illinois, where he served his first pastorate of two years at First English Reformed (now Evangelical and Reformed) Church. After a year as assistant pastor of Grace Church, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, he began in 1916 the first of what proved to be his major and longer pastorates: Heidelberg Church, York, Pennsylvania, 1916-31; and Heidelberg Church, Philadelphia, 1932-43.

Under the late Dr. William E. Lampe, Secretary of the Church, 1938-50, Dr. Kerschner began his work as Statistician on a full-time basis November 1, 1943, although he had devoted part-time to the work from the previous August on. On Dr. Lampe's retirement in 1950, Dr. Kerschner was elected to the Secretaryship.

Thirty-one years as a pastor, 14 years in administrative work, Dr. Kerschner has served at one time or other on the former Reformed Board of Ministerial Relief, the Evangelical and Reformed Board of Christian Education and Publication, the boards of Wyncote Home for Aged, Mercersburg Academy, Cedar Crest College, Ursinus College, and the former Central Theological Seminary. In 1948-49 he was president of the Association of Statisticians of American Religious Bodies, and in 1943 vice-president of the Hymn Society of America.

The latter affiliation is a reminder of one other area in which he has exerted his influence in the life of our Church. He was secretary of the Hymnal Committee from 1935 on, and in that office had much to do with preparing the Hymnal which enriches our people's worship Sunday after Sunday.

The President of the Church salutes a faithful servant of the Church, and does so in the assurance that a grateful people will respond with a fervent Amen.

Ordinations

ORINATION is the solemn rite by which the Church sets apart for the sacred office of the Christian ministry one whom it recognizes as having been called of God, who exhibits the mental, moral and spiritual qualifications of his calling, and who has completed a satisfactory preparation for and is called by the Church to the exercise of the duties and responsibilities of the Christian ministry.

This rite does not raise him to a unique spiritual estate, as though it conferred upon him gifts of the Spirit which he did not possess before or which those not ordained cannot possess; but it does entrust him with the privileges and responsibilities of a spiritual office to which God has called him.

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in state laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of..... Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered.

The corporate titles of our Church Boards, agencies and institutions may be found by consulting the Index on the inside of the front cover of this YEAR BOOK.

Names and Stations of Missionaries

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in the areas where we are established. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the willing cooperation on the part of the executives and other representatives of the Board of International Missions in presenting this complete personnel.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as those of the appointees have again been included. They are worthy of close study on the part of everyone. The names in italics after the post offices of the addresses of lay ministers represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses.

Students for the Christian Ministry

The innovation of presenting the names of the students for the ministry by synods as inaugurated in the 1956 edition of the Year Book was so well received and so highly commented upon in various sections of the Church that it has been repeated in the current issue of the Year Book and bids fair to become routine.

Pastors and parents can do much by way of influencing the lives of the young men and women in the local congregations to dedicate their lives to the Christian ministry in its many-sided interests and pursuits. The lists of ministerial students by synods follow:

JESUS AND THE CHILDREN

The scene depicted above needs no interpreter. Jesus loves the little children: all the children of the world. Our church with its many organizations and institutions ministers to the welfare of the home and children in many ways, and at a very early age children are made aware of the fact that their spiritual mother is co-laborer with their natural mother in showing them the Christian way of life. This section of the Year Book makes us aware of the many Christian institutions which under God minister to the needs of those committed to their care.

MINISTRY OF HOPE

The oldest children's home in the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the only one west of the Mississippi keeps pace with modern developments in Christian child welfare services. The completion of three modern cottages in 1951, modernization of all dormitories in 1952, the addition of casework services in 1954, and the inauguration of a foster home program in 1955 are recent highlights in the effort to offer to troubled children a service worthy of the opportunity and need.

REQUIEM

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia!

For Those Bereaved

Father of love and mercy, the consolation of the sorrowful and the support of the weary, look down in tender love and pity upon those who have been bereft of loved ones. While they mourn, may they not murmur; but remembering all Thy mercies, Thy promises and Thy love in Christ, may resign themselves meekly into Thy hands, to be taught of Thee. Fill whatever feeling of loneliness they may have with a sense of Thy loving, abiding presence, that they may cleave more closely to Thee, who bringest life out of death, and who canst turn their grief into eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For God's Support

*O Lord, support us all the day long of this troublous life
Until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes
And the busy world is hushed,
And the fever of life is over,
And our work is done.
Then of Thy great mercy grant us a safe lodging,
And a holy rest,
And peace at last.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Changes of Address

SYNODS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the detailed location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any error immediately to Dr. W. Sherman Kerschner, Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

1955 STATISTICS OF CONGREGATIONS

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1955, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

These congregational statistics went to press early in July. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in an area unit with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, between 500 and 2,500; F, under 500, and probably in the open country.

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

HEREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarters addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. This information has been secured direct from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Boards and institutions listed.

THE FULL-TIME SYNOD PRESIDENTS

With an enthusiasm and vision that were born of God, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit one synod after another voted in favor of the full-time synod president until today we have a total of twenty-three, in addition to the full-time leader on the West Coast. The impulse to launch out was born of God and He has given the increase. The end is not yet, and we believe that it will not be long until the entire Church is committed to what we believe is the leading of God.

When You Consider Fund-Raising Counsel For Your Church You Want To Be Sure...

- . . . that the goal which you accept is reasonable and can be achieved, yet is not understated merely to benefit your professional counsel.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES surveys and analyses — prepared without cost or obligation BEFORE your church decides upon a campaign — determine accurately for you (and, as important, for us) the reasonable goal for your congregation. Yet, LAWSON ASSOCIATES consistently achieves higher goals, and at lower cost to you.

- . . . that any effort undertaken in your church will be on a spiritual plane commensurate with the ultimate goal of your church, and not alone for immediate monetary benefits.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES campaigns are planned and directed with proper regard to this fact: while the immediate goal of a funds appeal is monetary and of the moment, there are long-range goals which your church has set and which a properly directed funds appeal should further.

- . . . that the firm with which you deal is worthy of your trust.

LAWSON ASSOCIATES has a long-standing reputation for excellence which is more precious than any short-lived burst of notoriety. This reputation comes from the trust which past clients have placed in us in more than 3,400 churches, and because of our adherence to the items mentioned above. It will continue so long as we continue and improve upon our service to the churches of this and other nations.
